Nineteen attended the Race Walking Assoc. Annual General Meeting in Birmingham in December. It was good to see outgoing RWA President Fred Pearce in attendance, as he had recently had a spell in hospital. During his year in office Fred attended most of the major events in the UK, plus many others. He handed over the mantle of President to Ann Perry, and we congratulate her. Noel Carmody is the new Vice-President.

Mike Fox stood down from Coaching and Development. The position has been filled by Steve Arnold (Nuneaton Harriers). All the other RWA Officers remain in post – however an addition to an uncontested line up sees Noel Carmody now assisting the National Championship Secretary Peter Marlow.

A Midlands resolution was discussed and carried which called for more officials and helpers at our race meetings. A "Working Party" has been established to determine the best way forward.

Ron Pickering Memorial Fund Grants

Those of us of a certain age will recall watching We Are the Champions and Superstars and were very familiar with the voice of Ron Pickering. Of course, it was as athletics coach and BBC athletics commentator that he is best remembered. Reflecting his love for athletics, every year his memorial fund issues grants to approximately 200 of the country's most promising young athletes aged 15-23 and this year's grant recipients include five young race walkers.

These are:

Athlete	Club	Coach
Emma Achurch	Leicester Walking Club	Steve Arnold
Cameron Corbishley	Medway & Maidstone AC	Andi Drake
Ana Garcia	C of Sheffield & Dearne AC	Brian Adams
Sophie Lewis Ward	Cambridge Harriers	Noel Carmody
Guy Thomas	Tonbridge Athletic Club	Martin Rush

Medway Sports Awards Winners 2016

Paul Nihill, who competed in four Olympics and won racewalking silver in 1964, became the fourth person inducted into the Hall of Fame. Paul was presented with a scroll to mark the honour

Inaugural Women's 50km World Record

15th Jan: Portugal's Ines Henriques established the first official women's world record (pending usual ratification procedures) for the 50km, covering the distance in 4:08:26 at the Portuguese 35km and 50km Championships in Porto de Mos.

At the IAAF Council Meeting in Monaco on 30-Nov 2016, the IAAF announced that as of 1-Jan 2017 any performances equal to or faster than 4:30:00 would be accepted as having fulfilled the conditions for a world record. Prior to Henriques' performance, the fastest 50km time by a woman was Monica Svensson's (SWE) 4:10:59 set in 2007.

2017 Selection Policies

British Athletics have announced details of the selection policies for the European Cup of Race Walking (Podebrady - Czech Republic), the European U23 Championships (Bydgoszcz - Poland), the European Junior Championships (Grosseto - Italy) and the World University Games (Taipei, Chinese Taipei).

Elan Indoor Meeting, Bratislava (SVK) (Sun. 29th Jan.)

The elite women's 3000m combined competition for seniors, juniors and masters. The early laps were led by Gemma before the 2016 winner Maria Czakova (SVK) took over and stamped her authority on the race to record a comfortable win. Gemma recorded an indoor personal best, moving her from 11th to 5th on the UK Indoor 3000m all-time list.

England Athletics Indoor Championships, Sheffield (Sun. 8th Jan.)

The first of the events was a combined boys and girls U13 & U15 race over 1000m, won by Faris Alkhamesi of Nuneaton (5:22.77), reports Mark Wall.

Next up was the senior women's 3000m. It was primarily a head to head between England International Gemma Bridge and British Junior International Emma Achurch, who has now moved into senior ranks. Gemma took an early lead which she built on and did not relinquish. She was compelled to back off from her schedule after attracting two reports for disqualification. She finished a comfortable margin in front to record a maiden indoor walk performance of 13:41.33, ahead of Emma's 13:51.23. In third place was the UK's leading U18 (U17) competitor, Ana Garcia. She too had judging issues but she was able to hang on for a fine 14:46.24. This came a day after finishing 13th in the Yorkshire County cross country (despite falling and, in her words, trampled). Sophie Lewis Ward (4th in the European U18 5000m Walks Championships in 2016), affected by a heavy swim training and hampered by a 'stitch' was an isolated 4th in 15:43.07.

In the absence of Tom Bosworth, the men's 3000m indoor walk championship held the prospect of the three new seniors (Callum Wilkinson, Cameron Corbishley and Guy Thomas who have all bid farewell to the junior ranks) seeking to stamp their authority on the event. This came to be. Callum took an early lead with Cameron in close attendance and Guy not far off the pace. The four judges were active during the race, but given athletes passed the judges a total of 60 times, this is not surprising. Unfortunately, Cameron collected his third report in the dying stages of the event and the disqualification could only be communicated after he had crossed the finish line. In mitigation, he has been involved in heavy training loads so fatigue may well have played a hand. This left Callum a comfortable winner in a sharp 11:35.0. Guy may have been subdued by two cards against his name but came home in 12:22.4. A tussle ensued behind the leaders, with Luc Legon taking third place ahead of junior Tom Partington. Unfortunately, due to electrical failure, the electronic timing failed so manual timing was used.

George Williams 1935-2016

It is with sadness that we report the passing, on Christmas Day, of former Belgrave Harriers race walker George Williams.

George was an International in the early 60's and competed and placed 3rd in the Lugano Cup, equivalent to the current World Team Championships, in 1:34:02, behind winner Ken Matthews (1:30:55) and Swede Lennart Back (1:32:12). Over this period, he featured in the Belgrave Harriers, Surrey County and Post Office Teams.

Many people believe George quit his international career too early. He was tipped by some of his peers as a medal contender for the 1964 Tokyo Olympics but he decided to quit the sport instead. Although George didn't go to Tokyo, his great friend and protégé Paul Nihill did, winning Olympic silver.

In retirement, he wrote and published a book Run Rabbit Run about his life and times.

The following events will comprise the Race Walking Association's Young Athletes Grand Prix for 2017.

Best five race positions from seven events. For Under 13's it is best four from six events as there is not an England Athletics Championship for that age group.

Sarnia Walking Club Bob Wright Handicap Series Race 5 5km Road Walk, North Side, Guernsey (Sun. 8th Jan.)

Donna Allan, who has improved rapidly since her first race last September, surpassed all expectations as she broke 30 minutes and removed a huge amount of time off her previous best of 34:14, reports Rob Elliott. Set off with Phil Lockwood on handicap, she soon moved ahead of him and started to make inroads on those set off in front of her. Hitting the front with still plenty of the race left she crossed the line in an actual time of 29:53. This time was a new age best time for Guernsey, beating that set by Jenny Elliott some years ago.

Second home, also with a performance better than expected was Peter Beckerleg in an actual time of 33.30. A close finish for third was won by Rob Elliott who had to find a sprint to overcome Phil Lockwood. Lockwood's glance behind leading him to try to hold off his rival with his own short lived final effort.

Second woman to finish was Jayne Le Noury, holding off Mick Le Sauvage for fifth place.

Marie Macdonald had a good race overtaking Kay Coulson and Dave Dorey. After five races in the series and with two to go Donna Allan and Peter Beckerleg are in the first two positions but with a lot still to walk for.

Enfield League 5 Miles, Donkey Lane (Sat. 14th Jan.)

Conditions for the opening race of the 2017 series could have been worse; it was cold (4°c) but the biting cold wind that can sweep across the playing fields, was thankfully absent, reports Ron Wallwork. Ilford's Sebastian Parris led early on with Jim Ball, Malcolm Martin and Stuart Bennett in close attendance and the promising teenager Emily Ghose also not far off the pace.

However, novice Parris' enthusiasm and lack of race walking experience resulted in two red cards and as he struggled to avoid a third, Ball and Martin reeled him in.

Emily Ghose making her debut at the distance was an impressive winner of the ladies' race, her time the fastest winning time for two years. It was also the first effort at the distance for Oliver Hopkins, who acquitted himself well with a high placing and a good time. Young George Wilkinson recorded a personal best for three miles, as did Melanie Peddle and Joyce Crawford over the five miles.

who won this race last year, deserve a special mention for enduring the conditions and Enfield Town FC for allowing us the use their club room for the presentations.

Sarnia Walking Club Pace Judgement Challenge, Cambridge Park, Guernsey (Sun. 15th Jan.)

The club held a fun event with walkers doing six individual laps of 750 metres at Cambridge Park, reports Rob Elliott. The idea was to get the lap times as close as possible. Three walkers, Jayne Le Noury, Mick Le Sauvage and Stuart Le Noury both managed to achieve a six second difference in times. A seventh lap was added to see if an outright winner could be found. Stuart Le Noury dropped a few seconds on this lap with the other two remaining with a six second difference and declared joint winners.

The club held a minute's silence in respect of Ossie Naftel who passed away earlier this week. Ossie was an active walker in the early days of the Sarnia Walking Club and before that for the GIAAC. Ossie served the Sarnia Walking Club as President.

Steyning Open 15km, Sussex (Sat. 21st Jan.)

On a very cold but sunny day, the walkers set off on this undulating country out and back course, and apart from a couple of icy corners was a good day for racing, reports Ron Penfold.

Numbers were a bit down this year with only five of last year's finishers starting.

Leicester WC's Emma Achurch, making the long trip to Steyning for a time trial, set off at a cracking pace, chased by Steyning's Ian Richards. Emma reached the turn in 36:36 with Ian starting to find the pace too hot turning in 38:56. On the return Emma, walking a very controlled race with a good and fluent style and enjoying the countryside, pulled further away from Ian to finish in a new ladies record for this course, coming back faster than she went out to win in 1:12:48. Ian managed to hang onto to win the men's race in 1:23:56, and was pleased to not aggravate his injury. Jimmy Ball finished strongly to take 2nd in the men's race pulling away from Nuneaton's Steve Arnold, next was a very pleased Trevor Jones of who has been out of racing for approximately 18 months with a hamstring injury, Dan Maskell just about managed to hold off Paul Gaston. Anne Jones was 2nd lady to finish, getting the better of Chris Flint on the return.

1km Hill Climb Challenge, Dobcroft Road, Sheffield, (Sun. 22nd Jan.)

Our 4th annual 1km hill climb attracted a turnout of eight walkers, reports Brian Adams. Handicapping is never easy, to allow for the longer time needed to walk 1km uphill. I handicap it as if it was a 1200m race and it seems to work with finishers two to six getting within 12 seconds of my 'guess' of their time. Toby Chaplin was the second walker away and took the lead close to the halfway point just as the steepest part of the course kicks in.

Ana Garcia was concerned that she had to pull back three minutes in a race where she would only be walking for less than 6 min. But she did pull back those three minutes on the first girl away Imogen Walker, passing her in the final 'flatter' finish in the battle for  $3^{rd}$  place. Luca Cundey had taken second place 6 seconds ahead of Ana.

London Indoor Games, Lee Valley (Sun. 22nd Jan.)

The London Indoor Games walks are race three in the British Athletics Winter Race Walk Challenge with the races being reasonably supported. Luc Legon sped away from the gun and was soon into his stride and soon lapping the field to come home a clear winner, breaking the thirteen-minute barrier (indoor or outdoor) for the first time. Second across the line was first lady Emily Ghose in a new personal best.

In the U13/U15 1000m most of the field recorded personal bests including the boys' and girls' winners Alex Macheath and Lois Carty. Mixed 3000m

Sarnia Walking Club Bob Wright Handicap Series Race Six 1 Mile Track, Osmond Priaulx, Footes Lane (Sun. 29th Jan.)

Second place Peter Beckerleg strengthened his challenge for the overall win in the Bob Wright Handicap Series with one race to go, reports Rob Elliott. He was beaten on the day only by Stuart Le Noury who walked from starting last to crossing the line first with an actual time of 7:28.

Third place went to Kay Coulson a few seconds down on second place.

After two race discards are taken into consideration in the seven-race series Beckerleg and Donna Allan are favourites with Stuart Le Noury and Rob Elliott also in with a shout should they finish the last race well up the field.
